

The Allen Law Firm Scholarship

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Allen Law Firm Scholarship!

When complete, your application should be mailed to Samantha Jefferys, at Allen, Allen, Allen & Allen. In fairness to all applicants, we will not consider any applications postmarked after April 1. The Allen Law Firm will award fifteen $1,500 scholarships this year to students throughout Central Virginia, according to the following criteria:

1. The applicant should have demonstrated academic progress during his or her four years of high school. Despite being orphaned in childhood, George Allen overcame significant challenges in putting himself through college and law school, then going on to found one of the premier personal injury law firms in the country. The scholarship which bears his name is designed in particular to recognize students who, despite obstacles or special challenges, have nonetheless achieved high standards of performance. High school transcripts, attendance records, or other applicable test scores demonstrating improvement and high achievement are requested.
2. The applicant should possess good character, described by two letters of recommendation. At least one of the letters must be furnished by a teacher or guidance counselor.
3. The applicant must be a senior in high school, whose plans include advanced education through college, nursing, business, trade, technical training or similar program.
4. The application must be completed in full; incomplete applications will not be eligible for consideration.

Thank you again for your interest! If you have any questions or comments regarding the Allen Law Firm Scholarship, please call Samantha Jefferys at 804-257-7535 or 1-800-768-2222.
